Butterfly Ballet

I'm a little egg
Nestled in the leaves
Small and delicate
Swaying the breeze
What will I become?

I've grown so big & strong
Ready for the world
I hatch from the egg
And slowly emerge
As a caterpillar now.

I'm changing every day
Growing in every way
Just dancin' the butterfly ballet

My tummy is full
I've grown all I can
So I form a chrysalis
Hanging from a branch
I'm a pupa now

It may look I'm resting
If only you could see
The metamorphosis
That's changing every part of me
What will I become?

I'm changing every day
Growing in every way
Just dancin' the butterfly ballet

Now the big day
Has finally arrived
To leave my chrysalis
And fly the into the sky
I'm a butterfly now

I flap my little wings
So colorful and bright
Land upon a flower
And soak up all the light
Look what I've become

I'm changing every day
Growing in every way
Just dancin' the butterfly ballet
